RADIANTSKIN CO.'S

TARGET AUDIENCE. 1

A. DEMOGRAPHICS:

RadiantSkin Co. offers dermatologist-tested products designed to maximize skin rejuvenation for teenagers and young adults. Our mission is to help customers restore their confidence through effective, affordable skincare solutions. With budget-friendly pricing, our products are accessible to individuals still under the care of their guardians as well as young adults navigating early independence. Whether someone prefers staying indoors or enjoys an adventurous outdoor lifestyle, our wide range of high-quality products caters to everyone. Ultimately, RadiantSkin Co. seeks to empower young people to regain confidence and embrace the best version of themselves at a manageable cost.

Interests and behaviors:

B. Our products target common skin concerns such as acne, blackheads, uneven skin tone, and dryness promoting a natural, radiant glow for all skin types. Whether customers love going to the beach, traveling, exploring new places, or simply looking polished in the workplace, RadiantSkin Co. enhances their lifestyle. Beautiful, well-hydrated skin allows our customers to capture memorable moments confidently, stand out in photos, and connect with the aspirational lifestyles of their favorite celebrities. By choosing RadiantSkin Co., customers invite us to be part of their personal journey, helping them create lasting memories without worrying about their appearance.

FOCUS PLATFORM. 2

A. Platform option:

The primary platform for RadiantSkin Co. is Instagram.

B. Platform justification:

Instagram is a highly visual, content-driven platform that resonates strongly with younger demographics particularly teenagers and young adults, which make up RadiantSkin Co.' s core audience. With its emphasis on photos, videos, and reels, Instagram provides the perfect space to showcase product results, tutorials, and customer testimonials. The platform also encourages interactive engagement through likes, comments, polls, and direct messaging, enabling meaningful two-way communication with our audience. Additionally, Instagram's algorithm and global reach make it easier to share information quickly, connect with diverse communities, and attract potential customers from different walks of life.
